NEW BUSINESS

8. Florida State Health Improvement Plan (SHIP)

Under the leadership of the State Surgeon General, the Department of Health tasked a diverse group of partners with creating a blueprint for action, culminating in Florida's State Health Improvement Plan (SHIP). The SHIP sets out goals for Florida's public health system, which includes a range of stakeholders, such as state and local government agencies, health care providers, employers, community groups, universities and schools, nonprofit organizations and advocacy groups. The department used a collaborative planning process to foster shared ownership and responsibility for the plan's implementation, with the goal of efficient and targeted collective action to improve the health of Floridians.

The department requested input on ways this profession can assist in meeting the SHIP goals.

This was for informational purposes only.
