The case was presented with eight (8) exceptions by the Respondent to the Department of Administrative Hearings Recommended Order.

Respondent Exception 1- The Administrative law judges' refusal to consider material probable cause panel irregularities on jurisdictional grounds violates Article III, section 1 of the Florida Constitution.

Respondent Exception 8- The Administrative Laws Judge admitted for the first time and over the respondent's objection, testimony, to the effect that there were multiple other references to a flaccid penis.

Petitioners Exception 1- Administrative Laws Judge's findings in paragraph 73, that the petitioner did not prove by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent engaged A.D. in sexual misconduct because, in part, there was "a lack of corroboration" of patient A.D.'s testimony.

After discussion, Dr. Pabian made a motion to approve the exemption by rejecting the findings of fact as a departure from the essential requirements of the law as found in section 120.81 (4)(a), F.S., the motion was seconded by Dr. Kleponis and carried 4/0.

After discussion, Dr. Donald made a motion accept the Administrative Law Judge's findings of fact as fact of the Board's. The motion was seconded by Dr. Pabian and carried 4/0.
